Dear Parent,

The classes after Diwali holidays have commenced from 2nd November 2016 and your ward is not attending classes regularly. He/she is required to attend the classes regularly as the minimum attendance requirement to appear in the end term exam is 75% according to university norms.

It has also been observed that many students have not appeared in the First sessional exam. It is mandatory to appear in the internal exam irrespective of your placements for internal assessment. In case he/she has not appeared in the first sessional He/ She may contact his/her mentor regarding the same.

Hence he/she is required to report in the institute immediately and attend classes. In case of further irregularity he/she may be detained from appearing in examinations (Internal & External) and debarred from campus placements.

Regards,

Nidhi Mathur
